THE FLORIDA STATE UNIVERSITY
COLLEGE OF EDUCATION

ASSISTANT OR ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR IN READING/LANGUAGE ARTS OR SPECIAL EDUCATION

JOB INFORMATION/DEPARTMENT:
The College of Education and the Florida Center for Reading Research at Florida State University invite applications for an assistant or beginning associate professor tenure-earning position to start in Fall 2016. The positions will involve teaching, research, and service within the program areas of Special Education or Reading/Language Arts in the School of Teacher Education, and will be made jointly with the Florida Center for Reading Research. The positions carry a reduced teaching assignment with correspondingly high expectations for research. Applicants with expertise and research interests in early and/or adolescent reading interventions are encouraged to apply.

For more information about the College of Education and the Florida Center for Reading Research, visit: http://education.fsu.edu and http://www.fcrr.org.

RESPONSIBILITIES:
The applicants will be expected to maintain a rigorous grant writing and research program, teach masters and doctoral level classes in special education and/or reading/language arts, and participate in university governance.

MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS:
Ph.D. in Special Education (or related doctorate) with an emphasis on early and/or adolescent reading interventions and learning disabilities. Candidates should demonstrate a strong commitment to graduate teaching and strong evidence of scholarly productivity, including evidence of a federally-funded, independent research program.

OTHER INFORMATION:
Dr. Young-Suk Grace Kim is chair of the search committee. Review of applications will begin at the closing of this posting. The expected start date of this position is August 2016.

HOW TO APPLY:
If qualified and interested in a job opening as advertised, apply to The Florida State University at www.jobs.fsu.edu. Applicants are required to complete the online application with all applicable information. Applications must include all work history up to ten years, and all education details even if attaching a resume. In addition to the application and vita/resume, a statement of research interests, representative publications, and 3 letters of recommendations are also required. These should be sent via email to James Cole.
