

FLORIDA STATE UNIVERSITY

COLLEGE OF EDUCATION

ASSISTANT OR ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR IN PSYCHOLOGICAL AND COUNSELING SERVICES

DEPARTMENT:

The Department of Educational Psychology and Learning Systems (EPLS) at Florida State University is delighted to announce a tenure earning faculty position within the department's Psychological and Counseling Services (PCS) program for the NASP approved M.S./Ed.S. School Psychology Program and the APA-accredited Combined Doctoral Program in Counseling Psychology and School Psychology. We welcome you to learn more about the degree programs as highlighted in the following links <http://education.fsu.edu/degrees-and-programs/school-psychology> and <http://education.fsu.edu/degrees-and-programs/counseling-psychology-and-school-psychology>.

QUALIFICATIONS:

Candidates for this position should have an earned doctorate from an APA-accredited and/or NASP approved doctoral program in School Psychology (or degree program with specialization in school psychology). Candidates may be considered at the level of Assistant or Associate Professor rank.

RESPONSIBILITIES:

We are seeking a candidate with clear expressed interest in school psychology training, policy and professional issues. The successful candidate will demonstrate an aptitude for and commitment to both the Ed.S. School Psychology program and the Combined Doctoral Program in Counseling Psychology and School Psychology. We are seeking a candidate who will contribute to strengthening program quality and student recruitment and assuring continued accreditation. The successful candidate will also demonstrate experience and evidence of quality teaching within core school psychology courses and engagement at both state and/or national levels within the school psychology professional associations. We are seeking candidates with evidence of strong scholarship and evidence of (or potential for) extramural research grant funding in an area that is consistent with school psychology research. The candidate will be expected to serve on doctoral committees and supervise student research in addition to teaching and service to the program, department, college, and university.

OTHER INFORMATION:

Florida State University (FSU) sits on 475 picturesque acres in the heart of the state's capital in Tallahassee, FL with an additional 1,129 acres across additional campus locations. Founded in 1851, Florida State University (FSU) is located on the oldest continuous site of higher education in Florida, in a community that fosters free inquiry and embraces diversity. Classified by the Carnegie Commission as a "Doctoral University: Highest Research Activity", FSU offers 341 degree programs for approximately 42,000 students with more than 2,400 faculty, including 6 Nobel Laureates. Faculty at FSU have brought in $200.8 million in contracts and grants in 2015 and embrace a philosophy of learning, strongly rooted in the traditions of the liberal arts. U.S. News and World Report ranked FSU as the 38th best public university nationally and was designated by one of two "preeminent state universities" in the State University of Florida. Footage of FSU is available at: <https://vimeo.com/150936230> and <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=yJPcDbpzxP8>

Established in 1905, the Florida State University College of Education is the oldest College of Education in Florida, having provided education to the best and the brightest for well over a century. Our history is entwined with that of Tallahassee and we are proud of our heritage and the contributions our distinguished alumni have made all over the world. The innovation and progressive environment at the College of Education is exemplified in the technology and facilities available to our students. Most notable is the Stone Building, which houses classrooms and lab areas outfitted with the latest technology and multimedia devices to enhance teaching and learning.

Tallahassee as a community is a vibrant mid-size city with opportunities for government internships and legislative initiatives as well as cultural events, shopping, dining and outdoor activities. As a community, Tallahassee also is located near the Gulf Beaches of Florida and enjoys abundant sunshine and a mild winter climate.

HOW TO APPLY:

If qualified and interested in a specific job opening as advertised, apply to Florida State University at <https://jobs.fsu.edu>. Applicants are required to complete the online application with all applicable information, including work history and education details. In addition, candidates should submit with the online application: Letter of application, curriculum vita, names of three references with contact information, and statement of teaching and research interests. Review of applications will begin immediately and will continue until October 31, 2016. We urge interested candidates to submit materials as soon as possible. The position is anticipated to begin in August 2017.

For more information about the College of Education visit education.fsu.edu

CONTACT INFORMATION:

Angel Canto, Ph.D.

Associate Professor
Chair, School Psych Search Committee
Department of EPLS
acanto@fsu.edu

The Florida State University is an equal employment opportunity employer and educational provider committed to a policy of non-discrimination for any member of the University's community on the basis of race, creed, color, sex, religion, national origin, age, disability, veterans' or marital status, sexual orientation, gender identity, gender expression, or any other protected group status. This policy applies to faculty, staff, students, visitors, applicants, and contractors in a manner consistent with applicable federal and state laws, regulations, ordinances, orders and rules, and University's policies, procedures, and processes.

