

2014 Cottingham Colloquium Agenda

Fourth Annual Cottingham Colloquium:

Consulting from an International Perspective

Sponsored by

Psychological and Counseling Services Program

&

The Student Association for Professional Psychology

Department of Educational Psychology and Learning Systems

College of Education

Friday October 3, 2014

FSU Alumni Association Center

1030 West Tennessee Street

Florida State University

Goals of the Cottingham Colloquium

- Maintain the sense of excellence and leadership in the Psychological and Counseling Services Program that typified the work of Harold F. Cottingham.
- Help current students understand the ways in which their graduate education relates to diverse options for professional employment.
- Build a stronger sense of community among current and former students, as well as current and former faculty.

Agenda

8:30-9:00	Light breakfast
9:00-9:05	Welcome from Scott Atwell, Director, FSU Alumni Center
9:05-9:15	Welcome from Dr. Marcy Driscoll, Dean, College of Education
9:15-9:20	Introduction to the Colloquium by Dr. Deb Ebener, Associate Professor/Program Coordinator, Psychological and Counseling Services
9:20-9:30	Introduction of the Featured Presenters by Dr. Shengli Dong, Assistant Professor, Psychological and Counseling Services
9:30-10:30	2 Presentations on Consulting from an International Perspective: Dr. Denise Saunders, Private Psychologist and Consultant, Chapel Hill, North Carolina Dr. Donghyuck Lee, Associate Professor, Konkuk University, Seoul, Korea
10:30-11:30	Faculty Discussants on “Consulting from an International Perspective”

Funding for the event is generously provided by the Harold F. Cottingham Memorial Fund