

THE FLORIDA STATE UNIVERSITY COLLEGE OF EDUCATION

GOVERNMENT AND COMMUNITY SERVICE

Barbara Maria Moro, Master's in Emotional Disturbances and Learning Disabilities

Bárbara María Moro, aka “Barby,” has been the Director of Student Affairs for the North Florida campuses of the Southern Scholarship Foundation (SSF) since 2010. Prior to joining SSF, Ms. Moro was a part of the Leadership Team for The Oasis Center for Women & Girls, of which she is a lifetime Founding Member. She has an extensive background in working with children and young adults in a variety of areas such as social skills, conflict resolution, strategic leadership, and civic engagement.

In 2013, Ms. Moro was a finalist for the Pacesetter of the Year award recognizing her as an influential leader in her community by Leadership Tallahassee and the Tallahassee Chamber of Commerce. In 2012, Ms. Moro won the Top A.C.E award for Authentic Community Engagement by the Tallahassee Network of Young Professionals, denoting her the top person under the age of 40 to know. She has served on multiple boards, has been a Catalyst for Knight Creative Communities Institute, and is an active Big Sister for the local chapter of Big Brothers Big Sisters. Recently, she was honored as one of the Tallahassee Democrat’s 2015 selection of 25 Women You Need to Know.

Ms. Moro is a graduate of Leadership Tallahassee, Class 28, and earned her master’s in Emotional Disturbances and Learning Disabilities from the FSU College of Education in 2008. Afterward, she returned to FSU and in 2013 received her master’s in Public Administration, with a focus on Nonprofit Management and Strategic Leadership, from the Askew School of Public Administration and Policy. Ms. Moro is a first-generation college student and extremely proud to be an FSU and SSF Alumna.