

Degree Requirements: Education Policy and Evaluation MS

Students complete 36 hours, including a comprehensive exam in their final semester of the program. A draft Program of Studies is required during the second semester, though students are able to make changes as necessary. All elective courses are subject to advisor approval.

Required and Elective Courses (as of Fall 2012)
Cores (9 credits)
EDF 5641	Introduction to Policy (3)
EDF 5462	Evaluation of New Educational Programs (3)
Prerequisite EDF 5461 Introduction to Program Evaluation (3)
And choose one:
EDF 5850	International Development Education (3)
EDF 5887	Multicultural Education (3)
EDF 5543	Introduction to Philosophy of Education (3)
EDF 5548	Philosophy of Teaching and Learning (3)
Disciplinary Perspectives (6 credits)
Choose two:
EDF 5612	Anthropology of Education (Education and Culture) (3)
EDF 5624	Economics of Education (3)
EDF 5517	History of Education (3)
EDF 5543	Introduction to Philosophy of Education (3)
EDA 5288	Politics of Education (3)
EDF 5630	Sociology of Education (3)
Research and Evaluation Skills (9 credits)
EDF 5481	Introduction to Research Methods (3)
EDF 5400	Basic Descriptive and Inferential Statistics Applications (4)
Found under Educational Psychology and Learning Systems
EDF 5461	Introduction to Program Evaluation (3)
EPE Electives (6 credits)
Choose two:
EDF 5652	Policy Development in Education (3)
EDF 5449	Survey Research Methods (3)
EDA 5569	State Education Policy (3)
EDF 5626	Economic Evaluation of Educational Programs (3)
EDF 5651	Case Studies in Education Policy (3)

Degree Requirements: Education Policy and Evaluation MS

EDF 5089	Black and Latino Education: History and Policy (3)
EDF 5935	Special Topic: Federal Education Policy (3)
EDF 5935	Special Topic: Urban Education Policy (3)
EDF 6576	Policy to Practice (3)
EDF 6629	Advanced Qualitative Methods (3)
EDF 5464	Qualitative Research and Evaluation Methods (3)
Open Electives (6 credits)
Students choose among other relevant graduate offerings within the ELP department, outside the department, or complete 6 internship credit hours. Classes or internship require advisor approval.
Master's Comps (0 credits)
	Take-home exam
	Internship and Reflection Paper
	Original Research Paper