THE FLORIDA STATE UNIVERSITY
COLLEGE OF EDUCATION

TEACHING FACULTY I IN ENGLISH EDUCATION

JOB INFORMATION/DEPARTMENT:

The English Education Program in the School of Teacher Education at Florida State University invites applications for an instructional position at the rank of Teaching Faculty I in English Education. We seek a faculty colleague to support an English education program focused on diverse communication challenges and opportunities of the 21st century. The successful candidate will coordinate and teach in programs leading to initial teacher certification as well as teach in graduate programs. Our goal is to prepare teaching professionals who not only succeed in their classrooms but also seek to improve their schools, communities, academic disciplines, and their professions.

The College of Education, the School of Teacher Education, and the English Education program strive to develop a deep understanding of, and respect for, diversity among students and colleagues. Of particular importance to the college are colleagues who are able to model and support diverse linguistic, cultural, and academic experiences.

RESPONSIBILITIES:

• Teach undergraduate courses in a teacher certification program and graduate courses in English Education
• Coordinate the English Education program
• Serve on graduate committees
• Provide service to schools, the University, Department, College, and the profession.

MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS:

• Earned doctorate in English Education or a related field by August 2016
• Significant experience and leadership in a 6-12 educational setting
• Commitment to and experience with working with diverse student populations are required.

DESIRED QUALIFICATIONS:

• Experience teaching English/Language Arts methods courses
• Experience teaching English education courses in an online platform
• Experience coordinating certification programs (including state-level reporting)
• Experience mentoring pre-service and in-service teachers
• Successful teaching experience at the college or university
• Experience or research in authentic writing, New Literacies, and/or 21st century literacies
• Interest and experience in rural or urban education issues affecting literacy development.

HOW TO APPLY:

If qualified and interested in this position, apply to Florida State University at www.jobs.fsu.edu. Applicants are required to complete the online application with all applicable information, including work history and education details. In addition to the online application, candidates should submit an application package that includes: Letter of application, curriculum vita, names of three references with contact information, and statement of teaching and research interests to our application coordinator electronically at amcknight@fsu.edu or by mail to:

Amy McKnight
School of Teacher Education, G112 Stone Building
1114 W. Call Street
Florida State University
Tallahassee, FL 32306-4459

Review of applications will begin immediately and will continue until November 6, 2015.

For more information about the College of Education, visit education.fsu.edu.

CONTACT INFORMATION:

Dr. John Myers,
Search Committee Chair
jpmyers@fsu.edu

The Florida State University is an equal employment opportunity employer and educational provider committed to a policy of non-discrimination for any member of the University’s community on the basis of race, creed, color, sex, religion, national origin, age, disability, veterans’ or marital status, sexual orientation, gender identity, gender expression, or any other protected group status. This policy applies to faculty, staff, students, visitors, applicants, and contractors in a manner consistent with applicable federal and state laws, regulations, ordinances, orders and rules, and University’s policies, procedures, and processes.