Harold was well known around town, and could be spotted a mile away in his Model A.

Harold in a doctoral seminar
Harold at work

Harold and Vice President Herbert Humphrey during the signing of the Manpower Act
The Cottingham daughters: Sarah Cottingham-Page and Rebecca Cottingham Montague

Johnson signing the Manpower Act of 1965 – April 26th to be exact. Sarah said, "Dad served on the National Manpower Advisory Committee, Department of Labor, from 1963 to 1967 then again from 1969 to 1971."
Guidance in Elementary Schools - Principles and Practices by Harold F. Cottingham

Counseling and Accountability by Harold F. Cottingham

Guidance to Junior High School