Dr. Courtney Preston

Graduate Student Development Session:
Developing a Dissertation Topic

Have an idea for a dissertation but not sure where to go with it? Have LOTS of ideas for a dissertation and unsure how to narrow them down? Unsure of how to form a committee? Just what does a dissertation prospectus look like? How do you go from a dissertation idea to a defended dissertation?

Are you asking these or similar dissertation-related questions? Join Dr. Preston to discuss the dissertation process. She will address these questions and more as well as share her own experience to help set you squarely on the path to a successfully defended dissertation!
