Degree Requirements
Curriculum & Instruction: Autism Spectrum Disorder Online M.S.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Semester</th>
<th>Online M.S. in Curriculum and Instruction Major: Autism Spectrum Disorder</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| Fall 1    | EEX 5298: Teaching Students with ASD
                 EDG: 5339: Making Sense of Data to Inform Instruction |
| Spring 1  | EDG 5345: Using Assessment to Differentiate Instruction
                 EEX 5248: Positive Behavior Support |
| Summer 1  | EEX 5767: Augmentative and Alternative Communication for Learners with ASD
                 EEX 5089: Adaptations and Accommodations for Learners with Disabilities
                 OR
                 EME 5050 Teaching and Technology
                 OR
                 EDG 5709: Culturally Responsive Teaching for Equitable Instruction |
| Fall 2    | EEX 5210: Assessment and Diagnosis of ASD and ID
                 EDG 5206 Teachers as 21st Century Decision Makers |
| Spring 2  | EEX 5286: Preparing Individuals for Transition
                 EDG 5342 Analyzing and Refining Teaching |
| Summer 2  | EEX 5836: Practicum in Severe Cognitive Disabilities and ASD
                 EEX 5089: Adaptations and Accommodations for Learners with Disabilities
                 OR
                 EME 5050 Teaching and Technology
                 OR
                 EDG 5709: Culturally Responsive Teaching for Equitable Instruction
                 EDG 5XXX Portfolio Defense |
| Credits   | 34 Credit Hours
                 (students have option to reduce one class and earn 31 credit hours) |

* courses in bold count towards FSU’s graduate certificate in Autism Spectrum Disorder and the FLDOE approved autism endorsement